October Weather.

According to Hicks.

Early frosts are predicted by the late Mr. Hicks for the month of October this year. He states his belief, however, that the weather will be better than the weather and that those conditions will be continued during the greater part of the month.

For the coming month is as follows:

A stormy start, with a cold front on the 2nd and 10th. On and towards Wednesday, 12th, to Friday, 14th, a cold front, with rain, which will be noted in falling barometer, change to warmer, bringing cloudiness and autumnal rains, generally over the country.

A regular storm period, beginning on the 16th, continuing to the 21st, with the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st. This last will predominate storm conditions, with the 18th, 19th, 20th, and 21st.

On the 22nd, 23rd, and 24th, a heavy rain and wind will set in about the 25th, the 26th, and 27th, and the 28th, 29th, and 30th, and the 31st, and the 1st, and the 2nd, and the 3rd, and the 4th, and Weakness

Many parents are lamely negligent of their children's eyes, early attention to which would very often avoid life-long discomfort and possible injury to general health. If your child complains that he can't see clearly, has dull pains in the eye region, frowns, looks anxious or with painful squint, it is your parents' duty to consult a COMPETENT OPTICIAN.

Top Coats

"The cool air speaks a language of its own. It says to every man: 'Be wise—buy a light Overcoat.'"

The New Fall Models Are Ready.

Every Coat shows style, grace and quality—all that good taste can require. Not a clumsy garment or a hint of degraded tailoring in our lines.

This season's Coats are of conservative length—with collars and lapels of moderate width—Covered, Unfinished Woredale, Viennas and Cabarets are the favored fabrics.

$7, $8.50, $10, $12, $15, $16.

We're right now that the man who comes here for his Top Coat will wear a better looking Coat than the man who doesn't.

FALL UNDERWEAR

Don't jump from light weight to heavy winter Underwear with one bound. It's "wise" to change to medium weight first.

We were fortunate in securing a large lot of Natural Merino Underwear in all sizes from 34 to 44, to sell at $500 per garment. These goods are worth considerably more money. Just the thing for this sort of weather.

Options differ in as to which sort of Underwear is the best, so we keep a variety.

You have Not One

Reason for Not Using

Zitoo

Some people think that all headache cures are alike, that they all underlie the same effect, or that if not perceived at the time, we will admit that some cure do this, for example, which contain the same ingredients, and so on.

Zitoo Tablets do not contain one of these ingredients, and so they do not cause a headache.

SIR HENRY PELLATT DENIES

Rumors of Financial Difficulty Are Without Foundation.

Toronto, Oct. 14.—Sir Henry Pellatt has issued a statement in reference to the rumor that the firm of Pellatt and Peltier, stock brokers and founders had made an assignment with liabilities of six million dollars.

Considerable confusion was caused by the view of the enormous liabilities of the firm mentioned in the assignment in connection with the stock exchange.

Emphatic denial of the head of the firm will be made to mention the effect of the rumor on the assignment on the Stock Exchange.

It is stated that the firm of Pellatt and Peltier has been entirely satisfied and able to meet its liabilities.

No assignment has been made and no action was ever contemplated or thought of.

No receiver has been appointed and in the position of the affairs of the firm there is no change.

There is a large surplus in the

The door of room 14, primary department, opened very slowly, very cautiously, and a small, anxious, red-faced fellow peeked in. The door opened from the blackboard at a muffled giggle from the children and was the finished face.

"Come in, Hardy," the curving lines of her pretty, sympathetic mouth enquired, with motherly solicitude. "It was the fourth time that week when Hardy Anderson had come in late, and even the children were beginning to look upon it as a joke. The teacher must be enquired, even when the delinquent is only seven and a half. Miss Orris left the blackboard with 'I see a little' half finished and stepped forward to meet Hardy.

He was smiling contentedly in his half shy, half mischievous and flirting open with Marguerite Maguire in the next room.

"Hardy, you are late again," "Marguerite," said Hardy brightly. "It's the fourth time this week, Hardy. Have you any excuse one more over the top of the other and tried to jam his stilette up into his side before?"

It was so still in the large, sunlit schoolroom you could hear the clock tick up on the wall and the humming of the door over the open window when the noise of conversation stood, but slowly the clock stopped in Hardy's little, tired face. He stared a minute he looked up at Miss Orris, his big blue eyes filled with a half suggestive smile.

"I never said any mother," the silence was more than ever. Miss Orris caught her breath and the teacher of the children to see what horrible accident the announcement had made on them, but they were only interested and gazed over the door. Hardy caught the look and hastened to cover his mouth.

"Oh, I got a father," Miss Orris, at right. "My father, Lady's old, and Hardy's watchman over on the bridge at night, and he don't get home till one o'clock in the morning, and that's why I'm late," "cause I have to wait a while with him."

Miss Orris hesitated, but the blue eyes of the children were so full of trust and faith, and she was so trusting and foolishly happy when she had spoken in the whole world was Hardy's except the more that he was alive.

As the lines were forming at noon she touched Hardy on the shoulder and told him to wait a minute at her desk and the little fellow slipped, watching the rest of the boys roundly from his post on teacher's chair. And when all still in the dark building, Hardy Orris came back and took him on her lap.

"You papa's a watchman, you say, dear, over on the bridge," she began, but Hardy interrupted hastily. "Oh, no, not my father—that's Reddy. I never had any father, and he's fondling him, Reddy says, and his mother told me that she and the doctor and Reddy adopted me on his own, so now I'm his kid."

"Oh, I see," Miss Orris leaned back in her chair and gazed at the cheerful little fellow. And just as Hardy's eyes flashed, he said, "I was in the Patterson, a whole room of our own, and for Reddy and me, and the Patterson have only got one room left for their own actors, and that's all."

"You don't say so," Miss Orris caught the innocent little figure close to her arm. "Is he really good to you?"

They don't leave enough of a little street as Reddy told his mother, and I get away when he don't handle in. I don't know you'll love him. What's the story?"

"Why nothing, nothing at all," Miss Orris said hurriedly. Just why she should be excited or confused over a caller from Cherry street she could not have heard, but the steady, anxious, admiring gaze of Reddy's blue eyes was distracting her.

"It's my father," protested Reddy hastily. "Yes, my father, I'm up at all night on the bridge and I don't get home till about 11 and the kid here likes to eat with me. The Pattersons never get home till 11, and it's so nice to me to see that he gets his feed. And I don't want him to go to school hungry."

"No, indeed," said Miss Orris in sympathy. Then she hesitated. Hardy had remained over to the colored and was happy. The lowered her voice as she asked, "Honey, is he any of it?" "Yes, my father, I'm up at all night on the bridge and I don't get home till about 11 and the kid here likes to eat with me. A Rigid Examination.

Colonel Alexander Gardner, in his volume entitled "Soldier and Traveller," says that during a visit to Asia he was once suspected of being a Russian spy.

This was an accusation of great consequence, as Russians were very unpopular at the time, but the traveler was so positive with fever and almost indifference as to what might befall him.

Application was made to the Khan of Akhal, and to a great state of anxiety as to the traveler's identity he was allowed to leave. He was then invited over half the world to examine the Khan's army.

"What you say," asked the Khan. "An American," was the answer. Still they were suspicious, and one man, a very intelligent scholar, of the Caucasian race, asked the traveler a series of questions.

"THE CALL OF THE WILD"

There is not another place on the continent so well adapted to compare with the "Highlands of Ontario" for deer and moose hunting. This part of Canada still forms a portion of that small remnant of the world's wilderness which has escaped the hordes of man and his mighty civilization.

Northern Ontario with its rich resources is regarded as the pickering ground of the American sportsman.

Moose season in the Moose country opens October 16th for 31 days.

Deer season in the Deer country opens November 1st for 15 days.

The sections of Ontario are divided into places to hunt and valuable information as to how and when to get there and all particulars can be had by addressing J. D. McDonald, 1081A St. Lawrence Street, Toronto, Ont., or the Game Warden, Union Station, Toronto.

"Peerless" Oven Dampers Give Absolute Control.

Most oven dampers have only two positions. They are either wide open or tight shut.

The "Peerless" dampers are adjustable. If the oven is too hot, you can open the damper and keep on adjusting until you get the proper temperature.

This means economy by fuel consumption. With the ordinary oven damper to keep the oven from getting too hot, the heat must be all thrown up the chimney. The damper has to be turned on again, before the temperature begins to rise again.

Ask your dealer to show you this special damper. Also the "Peerless" Oven Dampers, they will show you the advantages over other dampers. Write for catalogue.

TIMELY TOPICS.

YESTERDAY HEROES.

They were on the great tall sailing ship. They were far away from the land. They were far away from the land. They were far away from the land.

With death in a hundred guises. Without the notes of a battle. Or drum. Or bugle. Or any other sound.

No flag they had to lead them. No glory to spur them when they were to face with danger. But they stick to their posts like MEN.

They ride in the hub of the action. Or the seeds of the plants that find their way to their proper habitat. Many plants find their way to the marshes, like plants find their way to the hills.

They stand at the helm of the vessel. As she tenses and rolls, in the calm. Or in the storm, when the waves are high.

A woman's idea of a sensible man is one who makes a fool of himself over her.

If a girl lives a woman in the world and has no interests at heart, why does she spoil it by marrying him?

Men may be as devious as women. It is a matter of degree. Some men pretend to be doing a good thing when they are not.

It requires a lot of brains to be a fool. It requires a lot of brains to be a fool. It requires a lot of brains to be a fool.

Practice makes perfect. Practice makes perfect. Practice makes perfect. Practice makes perfect.

The rule is fairly easy. It is a matter of degree. Some men pretend to be doing a good thing when they are not.

Men, Jason (to Mrs. Lammie, in perfect confidence) "You know, I'm the prettiest lady in the world."

"Well, really, now, what a contradiction," said Mrs. Lammie. "You're a man."

"Give me a pack of your hair," I wear over my head," pouted the romantic young man.

"I could help the girl with the red dress," "I'm afraid it would give you heartburn."

A Bo Story. The good ship Fair Wind was burning along before the nor'west breeze.

The captain was in the great peeling potatoes for the men's dinner. The water was bubbling down the poop; the cook was shouting the men and the appetizers were neatly shodded boxes in the skylight with chunks of plum fruit.

Bowel Troubles

Liver pills, cathartics, mineral waters, often make Constipation worse. They merely irritate the bowels and force them to move—stop taking purgatives and the bowels become "right" again.

"Fruit-a-Lives" are the one certain cure for Constipation because their action is upon the liver. "Fruit-a-Lives" are a liver tonic. They stimulate the secretions of bile by the liver, this bile causes the bowels to move in the natural way, and the constipation disappears.

"Fruit-a-Lives" are fruit juices containing no sugar and no alcohol. In "Fruit-a-Lives" are one atom of bitter reposes on the stomach and the fruit juices, forming a new complexion which is many times more active, medicinally, than the fruit juices could possibly be. See above—$2.50 for 6 boxes. At all druggists.

THE FITCHES COMPANY'S SPECIAL PRICES

19c, 29c, 49c, 99c

Lasting Two Weeks—Commencing Monday, Oct. 28th, Ending Saturday, Nov. 9th

On Monday, October 28th, we will begin a very interesting sale. We have gone carefully through our various departments and selected lines from each stock and marked them at the above odd prices that will give our customers an opportunity for saving on hundreds of articles that are reasonable.

We have had this sale in mind for some time and on our recent European purchasing trip we secured lines specially for this sale which are far below regular value. There is no doubt of this sale being a great success, for besides special lines secured for the sale we are offering generous reductions on many lines from our regular stock that will be sure to be appreciated by our customers.

Special Prices are marked on YELLOW TICKETS in plain figures, 19c, 29c, 49c and 99c, and every article so marked means that it is selling at less than regular value. There will be many interesting lines on sale not enumerated in this list. We mean to make this sale the means of bringing our autumn sales far ahead of any previous season.

Lasting Two Weeks--Commencing Monday, Oct. 28th, Ending Saturday, Nov. 9th

On Monday, October 28th, we will begin a very interesting sale. We have gone carefully through our various departments and selected lines from each stock and marked them at the above odd prices that will give our customers an opportunity for saving on hundreds of articles that are seasonable.

We have had this sale in mind for some time and on our recent European purchasing trip we secured lines specially for this sale which are far below regular value. There is no doubt of this sale being a great success, for besides special lines secured for the sale we are offering generous reductions on many lines from our regular stock that will be sure to be appreciated by our customers.

Special Prices are marked on YELLOW TICKETS in plain figures, 19c, 29c, 49c and 99c, and every article so marked means that it is selling at less than regular value. There will be many interesting lines on sale not enumerated in this list. We mean to make this sale the means of bringing our autumn sales far ahead of any previous season.
